MISS GREGORY'S TALKS TO YOUNG WOMEN NUMBER FIFTEEN The Times man's interview with a C. & P. Telephone operator is continued today:
Mr. Times man—I have read in some of Miss Gregory's talks about extra pay gratuities and bonus payments; what do they mean?

about extra pay, gratuities and bonus payments; what do they mean?

Miss Operator—I can best explain it by saying that we receive 64 weeks' salary for 52 weeks' work; that is the way it works out; for example, if a girl was earning, say $18.00 per week, she would receive for 52 week's work $216.90 more than her salary would come to.

The Times' man—Yes, but you have to be with the company for some time before you get this extra, do you not?

Miss Operator—No, indeed; the new beginners are on the same footing as we are in this respect.

Mr. Times' man—Is the company itberal about vacations?

Miss Operator—Very. Two weeks are allowed with part pay.

Mr. Times' man—I suppose semetimes when you are on evening work you have extra car fare to pay.

Miss Operator—Not a bit of it:

work you have extra car fare to pay.

Miss Operator—Not a bit of it; the company is very, particular about not causing us extra expense; when we have a double tour, as it is called, we are allowed extra fare. Mr. Man, you cannot find many flaws in the company's treatment of its operators. They are too considerate for that.

Mr. Times' man—Well, I am going to ask you only two more questions. What is the average age of the operators?

Miss Operator—Well, the law limits the minimum age to eighteen and we have operators from that age up to thirty.

Mr. Times' man—Do you have many married women?

Miss Operator—Yes, many married women help the solving of the increased cost of living betheir added income earned this way.

This ended the interview and the Times' man left, convinced that every girl of eligible age and not now satisfactorily employed should call and TALK IT OVER WITH MISS GREGORY,
